Traditional Ballad Singing Contest for Students

At the South Shore Folk Music Club, we love the traditional ballads from England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, and we want to promote interest in singing them. The traditional ballads are a window into a much earlier time that is different from our own time, and yet the people in these ballads experience events and emotions that resonate with us today.

Our 2010 Traditional Ballad Singing Contest for students in grades 4 through 12 will be held on Friday, April 16th from 8:00 to 10:30 PM at the Beal House, Rte 106, Kingston, MA. Performances will be judged on the ballad the contestant has chosen (see “NEW THIS YEAR!” below), musicality, and how well the contestant brings the ballad’s story across to the audience. There will be no charge for contestants, all others: $6 Non-members, $5 Members.

**IMPORTANT**To qualify, your song must be a ballad (a song that tells a story), it must be originally from England, Ireland, Scotland or Wales, and it must be traditional. For this contest, this is how we define traditional: either the song is so old that nobody knows who wrote it, or if the songwriter is known, but the song was written at least 100 years ago.

NEW THIS YEAR! This year we are focusing on the fact that a ballad tells a story. We want to hear ballads that have a lot of story to them. We want to hear stories with a plot, stories where there is a beginning, a middle and an end, stories where there are a number of things that happen and then a conclusion. Ballads that don’t tell much of a story, but are more like a description of a situation and how the singer feels about it will be allowed, but contestants will get more “points” for a ballad with a full story.

Here is an example of the story line of a popular traditional ballad, Barbara Allen:

Sweet William is dying for the love of Barbara Allen and calls for her to visit him.

She visits him, but she is very cold to him.

She walks home and hears the bell tolling. It indicates that he has died and that she has been hard hearted.

She regrets being hard hearted and dies for the love of William.

She and William are buried in the old churchyard.

A rose grows out of Sweet William’s heart, a briar grows out of Barbara Allen’s heart. The rose and the briar grow around each other and form a true lover’s knot.

There will be 4 categories with CASH PRIZES! The categories are:

1. Solo performer with no instrumental accompaniment - $50 cash prize
2. Solo performer accompanying him/herself with an instrument - $50 cash prize
3. Group (2 or more) with no instrumental accompaniment - $100 cash prize
4. Group (2 or more) accompanying themselves with instrument(s) - $100 cash prize

Submit your CONTEST FORM by Friday, April 9, 2010. The CONTEST FORM is on the NEXT PAGE.

Mail the form to Contest Organizer Karen Haffner, 326 Spring Street, Rockland, MA 02370, or email to haffnerk@hotmail.com. www.cantaria.com, see “Traditional 1600-1950. This site often has an actual recording of the ballad.

www.contemplator.com, click on Child Ballads. All Child Ballads qualify, but some have more story than others. This site has midi files, so you can hear the tune.

www.wikipedia.com, search “List of Irish Ballads”. Make sure you choose a traditional ballad.

www.wikipedia.com, search “List of the Child Ballads”. All Child Ballads qualify, but some have more story than others.

www.mudcat.org, a good place to search for lyrics for a ballad when you already know what you’re looking for.

www.youtube.com, try this if you find a traditional ballad with lyrics that you like, but you don’t know the tune.

If you think you might know a traditional ballad, but you can’t confirm that it is a traditional ballad and qualifies for the contest, call Contest Organizer Lynn Feingold who will decide whether your song qualifies. Lynn is happy to discuss songs and answer questions (781-961-6649).
